Dave, not sure if you started leave yet but I do have a couple of questions which I'm sure I can work out with Stan and Bart if you have too much other stuff to deal with in your last few minutes in the office. Sorry for the last minute here!

No rush on this, especially if Dave is already out. If we are going with no further action, then I won't need to get this out until before the end of the fiscal year which is the earliest the other parcel would be addressed and highly unlikely. I do think it makes sense to talk about this the sooner the better though while it's fresh.

Again, thank you for the very thorough and useful comments. I made a few changes but nothing too significant other than formatting. I added the para in redline and need to finish that. Also have yellow-highlighted a few things to fact check.

One yellow highlighted fact check is (b) (5)

Hi Carolyn, I have attached our review report. After you have read it and would like to talk about it, whether concerns or questions, I'll be here the rest of this week.

Regards
Dave
